Farming in the North-West.

ENTERPRISE.—Messrs. A. Harris, Son & Co. (Ld.), Wednesday received by wire an order from the "Bell Farm" Qu'Apelle N. W. T., for 25 of their celebrated Brantford binders and 10,000 pounds of binding twine. When it is known that the McCormick Co. and William Deering, of Chicago, were both competing for this order, as were also all Canadian manufacturers the very high standing of the "Brantford Binder" will at once be apparent, as it was preferred before all others either of American or Canadian make. Messrs. A. Harris, Son & Co., limited, have already booked orders for nearly 500 Brantford Binders for the harvest of 1884.

Messrs. Harris & Co. are since then in receipt of another order from the "Edgely Farm" Qu'Appelle for a car load of Brantford Binders. All the big Bonanza farmers of the North West are now ordering those Binders in preference to all others.

BURNS & Co. of this city are the agents for the "Brantford Binders" in this province. These Binders have a five, six and seven-foot cut.

THE barques Prince Rupert and Jessie Jamieson have made a large addition to Bagnall & Co.'s stock of pianos and musical instruments, including seventy five violins, some very choice and valuable. The stock will be further augmented by the arrival of the Duke of Connaught, Harvest Home, Princess Royal, James Bain and Jupiter. A visit to this establishment will repay the trouble.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

Dominion Lands in British Columbia.

WITH REFERENCE TO THE FORM OF REply intended to be made in due course to applications for purchase of Dominion Lands within the Railway Belt on the Mainland of this Province, which was published in the British Columbia newspapers on the 27th November last and subsequently, the attention of applicants for such lands is called to the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, 1883, as to Homestead Rights, and particularly to sub-section section 27 and section 29 of that Act, to which provisions, as stated in that reply, or to provisions similar thereto, all Homestead Rights in British Columbia will be subject.

The sections of the Dominon Lands Act which govern Homestead Rights are published in the British Columbia Gazette of this day's date.

The privilege of pre empting land adjoining land held by Homestead Right will, however, not be granted in British Columbia; and it must therefore be borne in mind that the pre-emption provisions of the Dominion Lands Act will not be made applicable to the Dominion Lands in British Columbia.

Due notice will be given when the Dominion Lands in the several districts are respectively open to Homestead Entry, and of the appointment of Local Agents, before whom the affidavits prescribed in section 29 of the Dominion Lands Act are to be made.

THE MEETING.

The public have spoken and their verdict is unanimously in favor of the suppression of gambling. Last night's meeting was orderly, influential and large, and the echoes of its undivided sentiment will reverberate from the sea to the mountains until in every community throughout the Glorious Province professional gamblers and the keepers of common gaming houses will be regarded as something that ought to be caged! Last night's verdict cannot be misunderstood. The mayor presided and there were present members of the executive, members of the Dominion and provincial parliaments, three ex-mayors, members of the town council, and men representing the clergy, the law, the arts and sciences, the manufacturing, mercantile and mechanical interests. Fair woman was there, too, in large force to encourage with her presence and approving smiles the efforts that a few earnest men are putting forth for the moral regeneration of this lovely city. The speeches were generally forcible and to the point. The victory for Law and Order is most decided. All good citizens, and especially those who have sons growing up in the province, will rejoice at the grand results achieved. The city government and the police know now that every step they may take in the direction of punishing vice will be sustained by the citizens. Let them go to work in earnest and extirpate the last vestige of lawlessness that exists in our midst.

BRITISH COLUMBIA'S TOWING INTERESTS IN JEOPARDY.

Few people are aware that under the unfair administration of the Dominion Coasting Acts the towing interests of this port and province are in danger of extinction. Something like $200,000 has been invested y enterprising citizens in towboats of a superior class and the owners now learn that they have no protection against the invasion by American tugs of rights which belong to our citizens. At this moment the local fleet—comprising the Alexander, Sardonyx and Pilot—lie comparatively idle, while nearly every day the announcement is made that the American tug Holyoke, or some other steamer belonging to the other side, has picked up a British or American ship and towed her to Burrard Inlet, Nanaimo or Departure Bay; and then in a few days follows the announcement that the same or another American tug has towed the vessel to sea. Last month an American tug earned several thousand dollars towing ships through British waters to British ports of entry. During the same period the British Columbia fleet towed but two ships to the coal and lumber ports. Some years ago a witty western writer proposed that as the grasshoppers had eaten every green thing in the Kansas country the people should retaliate by eating the grasshopper! The first question that will naturally occur to any person who may read this article is, why don't the British tugs retaliate by towing ships into American waters? The answer is the same as was made when it was proposed to eat the grasshoppers. They can't. The American coasting laws do not permit a British tug to tow a vessel whose last port of departure was American into an American port. American coasting laws are very strict. They are also very unfair, because they do not allow our tugs to do in American waters what the American tugs do in ours. There is no use in trying to conceal the fact that with a law in existence which discriminates against British and in favor of American bottoms stock in towboats is a poor investment. The federal act reserves to the Dominion government power to regulate all such matters by proclamation. Has the attention of that government been called to the existence of this grave injustice? and if so, what has been the reply? It would seem as if there should be no difficulty in procuring immediate relief by the banishment from these waters of American tugs until the U. S. government shall have extended to British vessels reciprocal privileges.

A Lover of the Leper.

TO THE EDITOR.—In your issue of this morning we read the flippant fulminations of something supposed to be a man, writing under the caption, "The Chinese Question." He signs the name "Observer" and advocates the interests of the almond-eyed and pig-tailed Mongolian. You who, in season or out of season, have never failed to deprecate the advent to our shores of these locusts probably gave space to the communication from a love of fairness and the journalistic practice of giving a hearing to both sides. His nom de plume "Observer" is one which would naturally make us think that he is a man casting an eagle-eyed glance over the affairs of the day, but his vision must be oblique, and his mind dethroned of reason. In his madness he protests against that to which every lover of fair Columbia, to wit, the wisest councils of her chosen friends, the legislature and the honored executive—has stamped a seal upon a legislative act expressive of a will to exclude from our shores this objectionable race. "Observer says: "This pursuit of knowledge under difficulties by the Mongolians may be very comical, but it suggests comparisons by no means flattering to our own race." To this sentence we will only reply in the words of an eminent author "Bret Hart,"

"For ways that are dark
And tricks that are vain,
The heathen Chinee is peculiar."

Insulting the woman who bore him "Observer" dares to say that he doubts if there are half-a-dozen white men in the whole province who are superior to the leprous Chinaman. Again, this brainless writer says, "Throughout this province the first step to respectability seems to be to hire a Chinaman." Does he in these days of innocence mean to tell us that in his childhood days it was found necessary to send across the trackless ocean to the Orient to obtain a Chinaman to administer to his infant wants. The fact that convictions in our courts have been registered against "Observer's" tawny friends for crimes that to polite ears are not inviting is a sufficient refutation of "Observer's" taunt. The so-called "Observer," blind to the current facts of the day in his proud assumptions, is a kind of Oscar Wilde, but differing from him, and presents us in Chinese love with a poppy for the sunflower.

CANADA PACIFIC RAILWAY.

CHANGES IN THE DIRECTORATE AT THE ANNUAL MEETING.

Mr. Duncan McIntyre Retires.

MONTREAL, May 14.—At the third annual meeting here to-day of the shareholders of the Canada Pacific Railway the following were elected a Board of Directors:—Mr. George Stephen, Montreal; Mr. R. B. Angus, Montreal; Hon. Donald A. Smith, Montreal: Mr. W. C. Van Horne, Montreal; Mr. H. T. Northcote, London, M. P.; Mr. Du Pascoe Grenfell, London; Mr. C. D. Rose, London; Baron De Reinach, Paris; Mr. R. V. Martinsen, Amsterdam and New York; Mr. W. L. Scott, Erie, Pa.; Mr. John Turnbull, Montreal. The changes in last year's Board are:—John T. Kennedy, of New York, who retired in January last, has been replaced by John Turnbull, of this city, and Duncan McIntyre, who has been replaced by W. C. VanHorne.

At a subsequent meeting of the new board Mr. Stephen was elected President, and Messrs. Angus and VanHorne, Vice-Presidents. The executive for the year was struck as follows:—Messrs. R. B. Angus, Hon. D. A. Smith, and W. C. VanHorne.

The shareholders' meeting was made special in order to authorize the Directors to lease the Manitoba and South-Western Railway. The road is leased on a basis, it is understood, of a rental representing interest on the bonds of the South-Western Company (not to exceed $12,000 per mile). Under this lease the Government's of 6,400 acres per mile accrues to the Canada Pacific. This land is situated in Southern Manitoba, and includes, it is said, some of the most fertile districts in the North-West.

THE PRIZE RING.

A Hard Fight at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 19.—Four thousand people witnessed the fight at battery D armory to-night between Jem Goode, English pugilist, and Captain Dalton of Chicago. The fight was with soft, small gloves, five rounds, Marquis of Queensbury rules. The first round was give and take, without any apparent advantage for either. In the second round Dalton made a stout rush and fought his opponent all over the platform for a time, but Goode rallied and had rather the best of it for the rest of the round. In the third and last round Dalton made another rush and putting in heavy blows knocked Goode down and off the stage, giving him a push as he went over. When Goode came up and Dalton again renewed his rushing tactics, and amid great excitement, in a struggle at close quarters, brought Goode down in the corner again, and as he lay upon the platform Dalton struck at him. Witnesses differ as to whether or not he hit him. The fight was renewed, and by a swift rush and the propelling force of his body rather than by the blow, Dalton bore Goode down between the ropes, and taking hold of his ankles assisted his fall to the floor below, at the same time dealing a kick in the direction, the onlookers again differing as to whether Goode was hit. Goode's backer then claimed a foul while Goode was climbing upon the stage. Tom Chandler, referee, gave the fight to Dalton on the ground that Goode was not on the stage in tim , while the time keeper, Mike McDonald, claimed the necessary ten seconds had not elapsed. Goode showed the least punishment after the fight. "Parson" Davies was master of ceremonies

NEW YORK, May 9.—The Prussian-Polish immigrants who were kidnapped in New York and taken to Cuba last December, and who suffered such hardships on a sugar plantation until the American consul learned of their misfortune, arrived at Castle Garden yesterday. The men are entirely destitute and without friends in New York. The Commissioners of Immigration will care for them until suitable work is found for them. Some of the party are ill from the bad treatment they received in Cuba.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., May 8.—Josiah Hamilton, aged 22 years, was shot dead bI his brother David this morning. The latter fled. They had a quarrel about a sheep killed by a dog of the former. David threatened to kill the dog and the younger brother infuriated, drew a revolver and fired.

ATLANTA, May 11.—Van Nordena, popular Atlanta musician, had a quarrel with a woman recently, and drew his pistol upon her. He was placed under bonds but dreaded his trial so much that he shot himself. He leaves a family.

NEW YORK, May 10.—A startling statement in connection with the policy-shop business in this city in 1881-82 was made to the Assembly investigating committee here to-day. L. W. Clark, who wrs confidential clerk of Upington, the policy man, when Upington's place was raided in 1882, said on the witness stand that a combination was made by the Comissioner of Jurors of Canfield county, Clerk Butler, the policy commissioner, the district attorney, and a number of police justices by means of which by the payment of $6,000 a month to these parties he was able to protect the policy business from interference from the authorities. Upington, he said, also succeeded in forcing an agreement out of Simmons, another policy man, by which the former was to receive 50 per cent of the latter's business. Col. John R. Fellows afterwards in the district attorney's office drew up the agreement. The witness testified that he on one occasion delivered a cheque for $5,000 to Mr. Butler, and that it was sent by Upington in payment for protection. The affair has created a good deal of excitement in of financial circles.

The King of Grain Harvesters.

In the year 1883 there were 18,000 Deering Twine Binders sold, and for the present year of 1884 the manufacturers are making 25,000 of these celebrated machines. This is no baby binder, but cuts a swath 6 feet 4 inches in width without the inside horse walking in the standing grain. The new Knotter for this year is the success of the age. These machines are simple, light and strong, and easier on a team than any other machine made. Sole agent for B. C., E. G. Prior, Victoria, B. C.

EASTERN STATES.

PORTSMOUTH, O., May 21.—The suspension bridge across the Scioto river fell this morning when some cattle were crossing. Mrs. Fulwiler with four children were on the bridge at the time and three of the children were drowned. The bridge cost $40,000.

BOSTON, May 21.—President Endicott has resigned the Oregon Transcontinental presidency. Elijah Smith has been elected his successor.

ST. PAUL, May 21.—Vice President Oakes, of the Northern Pacific, says that Elijah Smith, the new president of the Oregon Transcontinental, is a native of New Bedford, Conn., has had twenty years railroad experience, and was the builder of the Burlington & Southwestern railroad. He also built sixty miles of railroad in Mexico which he afterwards sold to the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad Company. He is a man of considerable wealth.

CALIFORNIA

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21. — Michael Murphy, a gardener by occupation, got into a quarrel with a hackman named Terrence McDonald on Sunday and received a pair of black eyes. Yesterday he was found dead in bed. A piece of paper on which the following was written was found in his room: "Terry McDonald, hackmen, has beaten me in this manner. I take my life sooner than any person who knows me would see me in this state.

M. MURPHY."

James D. Fair has purchased a residence and lot of D. Porter on the northwest corner of California and Powell streets for $85,000. This property is opposite the front of Governor Standford's residence. It is believed that he intends to remove the building and attach the newly purchased ground to that of the house he is about to erect on the adjacent tract.

A Remarkable Coincidence.

The Derbyshire Times says there is a very curious coincidence in the death of the Duke of Albany. His grand uncle the Duke of York and Albany died in almost a similar way, about the same age, and only about 30 miles away from the same spot. Fitzgerald in his "Lives of the Royal Dukes and Princes of the family of George III.," says:—"In the month of September, 1767 (September 17), the Duke of York and Albany, who was as usual travelling abroad, were seized with a fatal illness at Monaco, and died. This gay and interesting Prince was not thirty years of age and had made a favourable impression on every one he encountered." The account goes on to say that the prince died of a malignant fever after a severe illness of 14 days and then says:—"His Royal Highness had danced rather too much at the chateau of a person of fashion, and this had not only fatigued him but occasioned a very strong perspiration." The writer then describes the prince as having taken cold and neglecting precautions he became rapidly worse and ultimately died. The parallel goes further in some small items, the Captain Percival of that day being Captain Wrottesley, upon whom fell the melancholy duty of breaking the news to the Royal family. All the arrangements neccessary in connection with his approaching death were made by the Duke himself, we are told, and the author then says:—"After his Royal Highness had settled this arrangement he seemed remarkably easy. He declared himself perfectly resigned to the Divine will, and he spoke of of hi sdissolution with all the piety and resolution of a Christian and a man, acting up to those exalted characters to his latest breath." This parallel is certainly curiously and painfully interesting at the present time, the names of the two Royal Dukes, their ages, the circumstances of their deaths, and the locality all being so singularly coincident. Even the dates (1767-1884) have this peculiarity, that if the numerals in each case be added together they amount to the same.—21

TWO DEFEATS.

How the Bankruptcy Bill and the Free Trade Art Measure Fared in the House.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The house yesterday refused by a vote of 127 to 113 to suspend the rules and fix a day for consideration of the bill to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy. While a majority of the house were in favor of this motion the necessary two-thirds could not be obtained. It is considered that this vote practically ruins the chances for the enactment this session of a bankruptcy law.

THE FREE TRADE ART BILL.

The failure to secure consideration of the bankruptcy bill was partially offset by the overwhelming defeat of the ways and means committee in its attempt to pass the bill to reduce the rates of duty on works of art to 10 per cent ad valorem. A duty of 30 per cent. is at present imposed upon works of art of foreign artists, while the productions of American painters are admitted free of duty.

Chicago's Latest Enterprise.

CHICAGO, May 5.—A stock company of New York and Chicago capitalists, representing $500,000, has been organized to erect the Chicago Roman colliseum, which will be like the Madison Square garden in New York, though on a much larger scale. Don Costello, the celebrated New York showman and "miner," in one of the leading spirits of the enterprise. A lease of ten years with the privilege of twenty has been obtained of the vacant block at Wabash avenue and Congress street. The building will be 110x326 feet facing on the avenue. The stage will be the largest in the world, 60x110 feet. The building will accommodate 15,000 persons, the seating capacity of the theatre being 6,000. It is expected to be ready to open by Thanksgiving day.

ICE.—Orders left at the Pritchard House will insure the delivery of any required amount of congealed water, packed in one of the lakes in the upper country during last winter.

ARRIVAL OF THE IDAHO.

Little News from the North.

Yesterday morning at 7 o'clock the steamship Idaho arrived from Alaska. She had a fair trip both ways, but found a good deal of rain up north. She had in all about 15 passengers and among them 6 invalid sailors from the United States steamer Adams bound for Mare Island. On going up while in Wrangel Narrows the Idaho encountered a good sized bear swimming across, and the men managed to lasso him, but as he was rather an ugly customer to get into the boat alive he had to be knocked on the head with an oar. The mines had not yet opened and everything was very quiet. At Harrisburg there were about 200 people. The steamer took up a sawmill for the Treadwell Mining Company.

SHOT AT A BURGLAR.—Colonel Dudley Evans, who resides at the northwest corner of Sherman and Front streets, was awakened about 2 o'clock yesterday morning by hearing some one prowling around the house. He looked out of the window but could see no one. He then went down stairs and looked through the house and finding nothing wrong went back to bed. Soon after he heard some one moving in the yard and opening the window saw indistinctly the form of a man passing around the corner of the house. Thinking the fellow had been prowling around there about long enough Mr. Evans took a shot at him with a revolver. The intruder made good time out of the gate and ran off in the darkness. Investigation showed that a square of glass had been broken, the cellar door opened and some butter and eggs stolen. From the glimpse Mr. Evans had of the prowler he is of opinion that he was a Chinaman. As has been remarked before it behooves our citizens to look well to their fastenings of doors and windows, to sleep with one eye open and to have a revolver or shotgun handy.—Oregonian.

The Kendalls.

Last evening the Kendalls appeared in Mark Twain's amusing play "The Gilded Age," Mr. Kendall personating Col. Mulberry Sellers in a most creditable manner, and his acting was good throughout. Mrs. Kendall takes the part of Laura Hawkins in a way that cannot fail to insure the highest approval of every one. In every respect the play went well, the parts of all the actors being well taken. The bill for this evening is "Joshua Whitcomb," and all who want to spend a pleasant evening and enjoy a hearty laugh should take advantage of seeing Mr. Kendall as "Uncle Josh," a character that never fails to keep the house in a continual uproar of laughter from the beginning to the end of the play. Everyone should see it and be satisfied that it is really "all wool and a yard wide." The mention of this famous play will without doubt draw a crowded house to-night.

THEIR DAY ENDED IN VICTORIA.

Enthusiastic Anti-Gambling Meeting.

FINE SPEECHES---DECIDED RESOLUTIONS.

Last evening a mass meeting of the citizens was held in the city council chamber in support of the action recently taken to put down the vice of gambling in Victoria.

The meeting commenced at eight o'clock by which time the hall was well filled a large number of ladies forming part of the audience.

The following well known citizens were also present: Hon. Mr. Robson, Hon. Mr. Drake, Ex-Mayor Finlayson, Ex-Mayor Redfern, Ex-Mayor McMillan, Rev. Mr. Watson, Coun. Wriglesworth, G. A. Sargison, B. W. Pearse, David Spencer, Coun. Gowen, Coun. McKillican, Coun W. A. Robertson, Water Commissioner Russell, Mr. J. Finlayson, Noah Shakespeare, M. P., Coun. J. Robertson, E. C. Baker, M. P., Thos. Shotbolt, J. P., Simeon Duck, M. P. P., A. A. Green, A. Wilson, Ex-Coun. Gribble, Thos. Earle and W. Pollard.

His worship said in response to a requisition of the citizens this meeting had been called. It now became them to elect a chairman and secretary.

His worship was appointed chairman and Mr. G. A. Sargison secretary

The mayor returned thanks for being elected chairman. He was glad to see so many ladies present and it was the first time in Victoria that he had presided over such a peculiar meeting in this respect. In the old Saxon times, however, the ladies exercised an important influence. On the 26th of April Supt. Bloomfield reported to him that he believed that certain licensed houses were known as common gaming houses. There were ten houses mentioned in the report. His worship directed ten warrants to be issued, and on the 28th of April the Adelphi saloon was entered. The first case in the police court was the man Cameron, but there was no conviction, and the judgment of the magistrate was criticized. The six councillors had meanwhile prohibited the city barrister from appearing. He thought he had a right to defend the police magistrate, who in some sort acted as a judge and as a jury, and was bound to act solely by his oath. He believed he acted in a conscientious manner. His worship here briefly recounted the progress of the cases in the police court. He thought the police magistrate ought not to be blamed therefore, but he trusted nevertheless that gambling would be put down (applause).

Mr. B. W. Pearse then moved the following resolution:

Resolved—That we hail with satisfaction the evidence throughout the city of a general condemnation of the practice of gambling, as a pernicious vice, and of a growing determination to crush it out; and this meeting hereby declares itself in full accord with that purpose, and in sympathy with every legitimate endeavor to obtain the object desired.

Mr. Pearse said the resolution charged that gambling was now going on, but when he was on the grand jury they reported that gambling had ceased. He thought they must all agree that gambling was a great moral evil. The chief justice had clearly laid down what gambling was, and many a young man had been ruined by this vice. On his last trip to England he encountered a polished gambler on board ship. One night they robbed a young man from the western States of £100 and several more of other sums; one, a poor musician with only £7 in his pocket, who was afterward accused by the gamblers of having robbed them. He thought therefore that gambling was a pernicious vice. (Applause). He felt assured that all right minded men would support this resolution, and encourage the authorities and the police in doing their duty, and give them their sympathy and support. (Loud applause).

Hon. Mr. Drake, in supporting the resolution, said he thought the object of the meeting was to sustain the corporation in suppressing gambling in licensed houses (applause), by which young men were led astray, and the punishment came on their friends. He was convinced the system of open gambling ought to be stopped. (Applause). No doubt many there had taken a hand in the game. (Laughter and applause). In regard to the police magistrate and the corporation neither were on their trial, but he believed that in future there would be more earnestness displayed by the authorities in this matter. (Applause).

The resolution was then carried unanimously amid loud cheers.

Mr. Sargison, the secretary, reported that Mr. W. F. Tolmie the mover of the next resolution was absent. He then read the following letter which was received with loud applause:

David Spencer, Esq., Victoria.

DEAR SIR,—When a few days I was spoken to about attending the approaching public meeting and moving a resolution, my reply was that, health permitting, I would gladly do so.

Much to my regret, I have now to say that a hacking cough, most troublesome during the night, warns me against a night exposure now.

Heart and soul, however, am I with the reformers of Victoria in their present noble endeavor to purify the moral atmosphere.

Eternal vigilance is surely the price of progress in directions needing variously applied and unflaggingly persevering effort.

Hoping often to aid the good cause in daylight, and wishing as well as fully anticipating abundant success for the promoters of to-night's meeting,

I am, dear sir, etc.,
W. F. TOLMIE.

Hon. Mr. Robson said he had been unexpectedly called upon to fill the place of Dr. Tolmie. It was a matter of surprise that a public meeting should have been called in Victoria to decide that gambling was an evil and that it should be put down. (Applause.) It would appear that we had been asleep, and were not aware that gambling was going on among us. It was therefore a good thing that people had been wakened up. (Applause.) He thought they were all agreed in Victoria that gambling was a pernicious vice, and therefore they should all unite in putting it down. Let them, therefore, keep to the question in hand. He thought it was the duty of every inhabitant of the beautiful city of Victoria to purify its moral atmosphere. But while they confined themselves to the great vice of gambling, he hoped that they would also be able to stamp out the other vices. (Applause.) He congratulated the mayor on the manly way in which he had stepped forward in this matter. (Applause.) He thought great praise was due to those manly private citizens who had stepped in when the police had failed. He had great pleasure therefore in moving the following resolution:

Resolved—That this meeting views with alarm and amazement the recent developments, which show that gambling has been carried on in this city for many years, with the knowledge of, and without interference from the police, and we appreciate the steps that have been taken to suppress this evil, and any further action that may be necessary will receive our hearty support.

Mr. J. Finlayson, in seconding the resolution, said it should commend itself to everyone who had the interest of the community at heart. It was astounding that the proper authorities had not, until now, taken steps for the suppression of this fearful vice.

His worship then put the resolution, which was carried unanimously amidst loud cheering.

Mr. A. Wilson said it was one of the best features of the meeting to see it graced by the presence of women. He hoped to see them present on similar occasions. He liked the term woman (laughter)—and hoped if he said anything hard and harsh before he had finished they would take it as the earnest utterances of an old citizen. (Applause). The mayor had taken a bold and meritorious stand on this question. The police had viewed gambling calmly without interfering. Volunteers had to lead the way. They were always worth double the price of snivelling paid mercenaries. (Hissing and cheers). Volunteers were the boys—death or glory. (Laughter). The letter signed by the six councillors had never been intended for the public eye. The city barristers had been forbidden to prosecute on the score of economy—sheer economy! Three of these six councillors ruled the council and blocked the course of the chief magistrate. Who was it took in the gambler when he was ruined? No one. He was kicked out of society and if he had a mother would sorely need to lay his head on her loving breast. The women did well to be here to-night (cheers). View the vice and its dens in whatever light one chose. Gambling houses! licensed to sell refreshments! licensed rather to sell Hell Fire!! (rounds of applause). Any youth was liable to be enticed to these dark gambling rooms—where he could see money being earned apparently easily, where he was tempted—and fell. It was no glory to be skilful with the billiard cue and other attendant means of dissipation. Card playing and gambling also existed in the swell houses of Victoria. Some of the young men who had lived where he did—Nob Hill (laughter) where were they to-day! Some were in a place where they could play without fear of the police, who dare not enter. The vice was fearfully prevalent and spared none who became infatuated with it. The late vote of censure on Coun. McKillican should be taken by him as a tribute, coming from the source it did. It was the highest enconium that they could have passed, and was one which he would have envied for himself. He would move that be it

Resolved—That in the interest of justice, this meeting desires that the proceedings necessary to bring the judgment of the stipendiary magistrate in the gambling under the review of the supreme court be undertaken by and at the cost of the corporation of Victoria.

Continuing, the speaker said the council had [A voice—Oh! dry up.] given only at their last meeting the sum of $50 for horse racing on the 24th! Gambling again! (Roars of laughter.) They had given $25 to a base ball club; but they had no money to spend to prosecute gamblers. (Renewed cheering.) In conclusion he would say that all saloon windows should be made transparent so that persons going from church on Sunday could distinguish their friends inside. (Loud cheers.)

Mr. T. Shotbolt in seconding the resolution was interrupted with loud cries of "Speak up." Upon silence being gained he said he seriously hoped that gambling in this city would be vigorously suppressed. (Hear, hear.) They could see that it was high time to take energetic steps. (Cheers.)

Upon his worship putting the resolution, Mr. A. Wilson said the expenses already incurred in this matter should be paid by the city. This should be added to the resolution.

His worship then put the resolution in its amended form, which was carried unanimously with renewed cheering.

Ex-Mayor Redfern moved a vote of thanks to the mayor for his able and dignified conduct in the chair. Seconded by ex-Mayor Finlayson and carried.

Mr. A. Wilson then proposed three cheers for Coun. McKillican. He hoped the ladies would join. They did, and the hearty cheering that followed drowned the hissing which some chose to make.

The meeting then dispersed.

The British tramp steamer Bell Rock, which has been anchored in San Francisco harbor for a long time, is said to have recently been chartered to take a cargo of barley to Europe, the rate being £1 7s 6d. Municipal Police Court.

(Before Hon. A. F. Pemberton.)

THURSDAY, May 22.

INDIAN LIQUOR LAW.

Johnny, an Indian, was charged with having liquor in his possession by officer Redgrave and fined $25.

PAWNBROKING.

Nathan Pointer was summoned for acting as a pawnbroker without having taken out a license.

Mr. Theo. Davie appeared for the prosecution, and Mr. Hall, from Mr. Pollard's office, for the defence.

Mr. Theo. Davie said defendant was summoned under the 113th section of the municipal act, and under the 10th section the license to be taken out is specified as $75 every 6 months. The defendant had been fined before for a similar offence, and it would be very unjust to licensed pawnbrokers to allow others to compete with them without a license. He was instructed to show that defendant buys articles with the understanding that the owners can obtain them again at a certain advance.

Mr. Hall objected to the information as being vague.

The information was amended to the 19th inst.

Sergt. Flewin deposed: The defendant keeps a second-hand clothing store on Johnsen street. Next door is Mr. Aaranson, a licensed pawnbroker. The defendant is not licensed, nor ever had a license granted to him. I saw a Hydah Indian named Billy, his klootchman, and Billy Stevens another Indian, coming out of the defendant's place on Monday last; one of them carrying a coat. The Indians told me that they had taken it from pawn; the defendant had been formerly convicted in court for practising as a pawnbroker without a license.

Billy, a Hydah Indian, deposed he went to defendant's store to sell a coat, but the defendant would not buy it; defendant said he would loan him six bits on it if he would come back before Saturday and pay a dollar, and have it returned; shortly after he left the defendant he met Mr. Aaronson down the street—with whom he had pawned a watch—and told him what he had done, when Mr. Aaranson told him to go and get the coat back; at that time Billy Stevens came up and he borrowed two bits from him and went with him and his klootchman, paid the dollar, and recovered the coat.

Thomas Russell, Esq., the city assessor, testified that the defendant was not licensed on the 19th instant or any other time.

Mr. Davie again addressed the court contending the charge had been fully proven, and dwelling on the injury which occurred in such cases to those who paid a license.

Mr. Hall for the defence contended that defendant had simply engaged in a mercantile transaction and that it was not proved a pawnbroking business was carried on.

His honor fined the defendant $5 and $75 for license and $5 costs.

The case will be appealed to the supreme court.

Nanaimo.

(Free Press.)

Last fall we alluded to the fact that a number of Chinamen were engaged in mining on the Nanaimo river and its tributary, Boulder creek. Last week Messrs. L. Page and J. Allen, of his city, visited the headwaters of the Nanaimo river and its tributaries. They found that the Chinese had abandoned the diggings, apparently leaving in disgust. On Boulder creek they had done but little work, while on Nanaimo river the work was of an extensive character. There they had erected two large and substantial log houses, packing the timber at least half a mile. On the gravel bank they had sunk 10 or 12 prospect holes down to the bed-rock, through tightly packed gravel and large boulders. The Chinamen had run a tunnel a short distance into the hill. In neither place did they meet with any satisfactory results. Messrs. Page and Allen saw the rockers, long toms and sluices left by the Chinamen, also a pick stuck in a prospect hole. This gravel bed is about a mile above Nanaimo river falls, and consists of packed gravel and boulders, while on the opposite bank of the river are high and almost perpendicular bluffs of conglomerate rock. Page and Allen did considerable prospecting but could only find the color of very fine gold, which it would never pay to mine in such hard ground. The Mongolians were led away by finding a good pocket or two when they first commenced operations, and consequently went into operations quite extensively. From the work done it is estimated there must have been thirty working for several months. The general impression is that paying diggings will yet be found on the Nanaimo river, and even now men are out there prospecting.

On Sunday morning Mr. William Henry Jenkins, a well known pioneer resident of this district, died suddenly at the Departure Bay Hotel, Departure Bay. The deceased was a native of Cornwall, England, and aged about 60 years.

It is stated that the Vancouver Coal Mining and Land Company have purchased that extensive tract of coal lands in the immediate vicinity of this city known as the Harewood Estate. This tract contains over 9000 acres, and for the last twenty years has been looked upon as valuable for coal. Mr. Bulkley opened a mine on the estate a few years ago, but after a short trial was forced to succumb In the hands of an experienced company like the Vancouver Coal Company, we have not the slightest doubt but that valuable and extensive seams of coal will be found and worked on this estate. We congratulate the company on obtaining such a valuable acquisition to their already large estate.

FUNERAL.—Yesterday afternoon the funeral of Mrs. Grace Irving took place from the residence of Mr. Wm. McNiffe, View street. Service was held at the house, after which the funeral cortege, which was a very long one, wended its way to Ross Bay Cemetry. At the time of here death Mrs. Irving was 72 years of age and was much respected by all who knew her.

THE QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY.—On Saturday the public offices and banks will be closed at noon. At 9 o'clock an omnibus will start from Frank Campbell's corner with the base-ballers and the Amateur Brass Band for the park. If the weather proves fine a very large gathering is expected.

SURVEYOR OF SHIPPING. — Mr. W. Walker of this city has received his commission as surveyor of shipping for British Columbia, vice Mr. Westgarth, who resigned.

FROM THE NORTH.—The steamer Barbara Boscowitz has arrived from the North and is on her way to Victoria. She reports few salmon on the Skeena. She has 250 cases of salmon for Mr. H. Saunders.

REV. A. B. MELDRUM, of St. John's Presbyterian Church, San Francisco, will preach in St. Andrew's Church on Sunday next.

GEOLOGICAL SURVEY.—Mr. A. Bowman is in town and will resume this survey.

A New Industry.

Hitherto we have been in the habit of importing the best part of our carriages from San Francisco or Canada, and all our hack carriages which cost over $1000 each manufactured there, while it would have been much better if they could have been turned out in Victoria. We are glad that this has at last been done and that the pioneer hack carriage of the province made its appearance on the streets last evening. It is a "five light" landau, of handsome design and finish, built at the shop of Mr. William Grimm for Mr. Minckler who is lately from the upper country, and intends commencing the hack business in Victoria. The body of the carriage is pointed a dark lake color and the wheels black, striped with green. It is placed on platform springs, and fitted with Collins English patent axles. The carriage can be used either as an open or closed vehicle, and weighs about 1500 lbs. The interior is handsomely upholstered in green morocco with spring backs and cushions. The upholstering has been done by Mr. F. Norris and the painting and varnishing, which are of excellent finish, by Mr. Beck. Mr. Minckler deserves very great credit for having his carriage built in Victoria, and he has been ably seconded by those engaged in getting out such a strong, well designed and handsome vehicle, and we trust the pioneer British Columbia landau will prove a bonanza to its owner, and that henceforth our hack carriages will all be built in Victoria.

Farming in the North-West.

ENTERPRISE.—Messrs. A. Harris, Son & Co. (Ld.), Wednesday received by wire an order from the "Bell Farm" Qu'Apelle N. W. T., for 25 of their celebrated Brantford binders and 10,000 pounds of binding twine. When it is known that the McCormick Co. and William Deering, of Chicago, were both competing for this order, as were also all Canadian manufacturers the very high standing of the "Brantford Binder" will at once be apparent, as it was preferred before all others either of American or Canadian make. Messrs. A. Harris, Son & Co., limited, have already booked orders for nearly 500 Brantford Binders for the harvest of 1884.

Messrs. Harris & Co. are since then in receipt of another order from the "Edgely Farm" Qu'Appelle for a car load of Brantford Binders. All the big Bonanza farmers of the North West are now ordering those Binders in preference to all others.

BURNS & Co. of this city are the agents for the "Brantford Binders" in this province. These Binders have a five, six and seven-foot cut.

ROCKPORT, May 22.—The arrival of the Faraday was greeted by thousands of people. The shore end was landed and will be connected with the section previously buoyed 250 miles east of Rockport. The citizens tendered a reception to the officers but was declined till the cable was comted. When steamers sail this evening they preceed to buoy it 250 miles northeast of where there is a splice in the cable, thus making a complete circuit from Dover Bay to Rockport, then steam thirty miles east of Dover Bay and take up and splice the shore end from Dover Bay towards the Irish coast. When this splice is made she will sail for Ireland paying out a thousand miles in the deep sea section. She will then buoy the end of the section and proceed to London for the remainder of the deep sea section. After taking this on board she will go back to the buoy and finish laying the deep sea section to the Irish coast.

Forty-Eight Thousand Dollars Stolen.

EASTERN STATES.

ST. LOUIS, May 22.—A vault in the city hall in East St. Louis was wrecked by robbers and property valued at $48,000 taken. Most of it is city script, which is good for its face value. The combination to the vault was broken with a heavy hammer. Holes were then bored through the safe near the connecting lock and powder was then poured in and exploded. The explosion was not sufficient to open the doors, and a hole two feet square was dug through the twenty-inch brick wall of the vault. The small drawers in the safe were forced open and the contents taken. A large sledge and horseshoer's hammer, a brace and several small tools used by blacksmiths were found this morning on the floor. All the tools were identified by Patrick Burns, horse shoer of Collinsville avenue as having been stolen from his shop last night. A reward of $2,000 is offered for the burglars.

THE barques Prince Rupert and Jessie Jamieson have made a large addition to Bagnall & Co.'s stock of pianos and musical instruments, including seventy-five violins, some very choice and valuable.
